SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The Untitled Colour Photographic Negative Strip, also known as Schedule 12, is classified as:
Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.

The publication presents sexual conduct. The publication is a colour photographic negative strip which measures 15.6cm by 3.5cm and contains four images. These images depict a woman inserting an object into her vagina and displaying her body including genitals to the camera. The woman is seen both semi naked and completely naked and is in full view in each of the images. It is considered that the intent of the images is to sexually arouse the viewer.

The sexualised content of the publication means it is likely to be injurious to the public good, unless its availability is restricted to an adult audience. The New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 (NZBR Act) has been considered in relation to the publication. Because of the sexually explicit nature of the images it presents the restriction of the publication to an adult audience is considered to be a reasonable and justifiable limit of the rights and freedoms contained in s14 of the NZBR Act.
